

Greensboro Trails & Greenways

Park Trails

Barber Park

Surface: Concrete

Traffic: Multiple Use

Amenities: Restrooms, Picnic Shelters, Baseball Stadium, Disc Golf Course

Barber Park features a one-mile, multiple-use trail around its 109-acres. Simkins Indoor Sports Pavilion features indoor tennis and basketball year-round. Barber Park is also the home of an 18-hole disc golf course, created for the 1998 North Carolina State Games. View a detailed map.

Bur-Mil Park

Surface: Natural & Asphalt

Traffic: Hiking & Biking

Amenities: Restrooms, Tennis, Driving Range, 9-Hole Golf Course, Volleyball, Fishing, Playgrounds, Shelter rentals, Community Pool

Bur-Mil Park boasts two nature trails and has great access to Greensboro's longest asphalt greenway, the Atlantic & Yadkin. Big Loop and Little Loop, offer great hiking, running and mountain biking opportunities. Access to the Big Loop Trail is behind the Family Aquatic Center, or at the north end of the park just south of the trestle bridge on the Atlantic & Yadkin Greenway. Big Loop winds through the wooded area along the western perimeter of the park. The Little Loop Trail is accessible from the paved Atlantic & Yadkin Greenway in the southeast section of the park. This short single-track trail twists through the woods and offers a quick semi-technical ride for mountain bikers. The Owl's Roost Trail is also accessible from Bur-Mil Park. To help reduce erosion, cyclists are asked to avoid riding after rainfall or when conditions are muddy. View a detailed map.

Country Park

Surface: Asphalt, Concrete, Natural

Traffic: Multiple Use

Amenities: Restrooms, Tennis, Soccer Fields, Baseball Fields, Freeride Bike Course

Country Park is a great place for trails! The Country Park Loop is a one-way, one-lane road open to cars, bikes, in-line skaters and pedestrians. The

Greensboro Trails & Greenways

Veteran's Trail of Peace, located behind the Veteran's Memorial, provides a pleasant walk for quiet reflection near Richland Creek. Country Park is also developing a new interpretive nature trail for persons with special needs that will be fully-accessible to everyone.

The Copperhead Trail dips and twists through the wooded areas of Country Park with its berms and gullies that keep the mountain biking locals coming back for more. "The Zone" is a new place for expert mountain bikers and BMXers to test their skills on a downhill jump course. "The Zone" features a number of jumps, burms, rhythm and whoop sections sure to get the adrenaline flowing. Helmets are required in "The Zone" and rules are posted on the kiosk next to the course start point behind the Stoner-White Stadium scoreboard. Inexperienced riders are discouraged from entering "The Zone." View a detailed map.

Hagan Stone Park

Surface: Natural

Traffic: Hiking & Biking

Amenities: Restrooms, RV / Camping, Playground, Pool

Located in Pleasant Garden, Hagan-Stone Park is a 409-acre wildlife refuge and campground. The park offers more than six miles of unpaved trails. Each year, the park hosts a variety of events, including bike races and cross-country races at the national high school and collegiate level.

The Chatfield Trail follows the perimeter of the park for 3.5 miles and connects to other trails in the park. The Ridge Trail loops 1.6 miles around the northeastern section of the park and shares a portion of the Chatfield Trail. The 1.3-mile Draper Trail trudges across the western section of the park and skirts the edges of the campground areas. Portions of the Draper Trail are shared with the Dogwood Trail and the Chatfield Trail. The Dogwood Trail loops the southwest corner of the park sharing sections of the Draper Trail and Chatfield Trail. The Schoolhouse Trail is the shortest in the Hagan-Stone trail system, offering a 0.3-mile loop that passes by the old Oak Grove Schoolhouse. Bicycles are allowed on the trails. View a detailed map.

Oka T. Hester Park

Surface: Pea Gravel

Traffic: Hiking Only

Greensboro Trails & Greenways

Amenities: Restrooms, Trail Fitness Stations, Tennis, Soccer & Football Fields, Volleyball, Fishing

The 0.65-mile gravel walking trail at Hester Park has 20 fitness stations that will challenge both beginners and advanced athletes with extensive exercises to augment any running routine.

Hester Park features three soccer / volleyball fields and 11 lighted tennis courts. The park is home to the Greensboro Volleyball Club, which sponsors doubles tournaments from May through September. In addition, Hester Park has a walking club for senior citizens. Recent construction for the new urban loop has temporarily closed sections of the park, including the fishing pond and piers. View a detailed map.

Price Park

Surface: Natural

Traffic: Hiking & Biking

Amenities: Library, Butterfly Garden, Meadow Lark Sanctuary

Price Park is a natural oasis tucked away in Greensboro's northwestern suburbs. The trails at Price Park meander through natural open space, abounding with plant and wildlife. The Evergreen Trail traverses mixed deciduous and coniferous forest types that provide natural habitat to a variety of native and exotic plants, insects, birds, and animals. The trail also serves the Kathleen Clay Edwards Family Branch Library as an outdoor classroom. The paved section of Price Park Greenway connects across Hobbs Road to the gravel section, offering an excellent place for walking or running. Future plans are in development for linking Price Park Greenway to the Bicentennial Greenway at Carolyn S. Allen Community Park, just north of Horse Pen Creek. View a detailed map.